YOUTH FROM INDIANA ARRESTED ON O. S. T. CARRING C. WEAPON

Will Spend Ten Days in City Guest of Hancock County—At Public Hotel.

Fred Miller, of Terre Haute, Ind., a youth of some 17 years, with a delicately chiseled face, and all features of possibly a Byron in the embryo, was reported traveling over the Old Spanish Trail, leading out of the city, on Monday afternoon.

Sheriff Jos. C. Jones was apprised of the fact and quickly had the youth, with concealed weapon, in custody. He was given a hearing before Justice Gutierrez, County Attorney, and was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail. He was charged with being a vagrant and carrying concealed weapon. He said he had found the revolver, a type of other days, and which gave appearance of weather scarred.

Miller, from Terre Haute, Ind., said Miller to the Echo reporter and on my way to California, where my parents and family reside. I was born and reared in Terre Haute and did not wish to leave there, until later when I found the absence of my parents was more than I could stand.

He will spend ten days in the Hotel de Hancock and in default of cash to pay costs, work on the public road.

Work Begins on Fire Engine House.

Joseph L. Favre, recent successful bidder for building Bay St. Louis fire engine house, for $4,118.12, had the site for the building, in Ulman avenue, back the city waterworks building, surveyed Monday afternoon by E. S. Drake, civil engineer, who gave him the lines for the proposed structure, and preliminary work of building has already begun. Contractor Favre, assisted by his son, Forest, is building the new site for the city's engine house, a logical place, since the water main line runs on the premises and the city's water plant is located on a site practically adjoining, in which Commissioners Lader and Egloff concur. In case of emergency it is planned to give the maximum of service and result in the minimum of time.

More Gulf Coast Transportation.

The Teche Transfer company inaugurated a line of excellent parlor buses between New Orleans and Biloxi yesterday.

They now have three of these buses which are equal, if not superior, to any parlor car in their appointments now in service, and they run on a definite convenient schedule and the number of buses in this service between New Orleans and Biloxi will be increased as the amount of patronage demands when the inauguration of this service becomes generally known.

The station for the Teche Transfer company at present in Bay St. Louis is the Weston hotel, and local, through passengers are handled from all convenient points, and the service is of the highest quality.

This transportation company is now planning to add a new service between Biloxi and New Orleans, and will be in operation in the near future.

Returned From New York.

Miss Beatrice Smith, accomplished daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alvin P. Smith, returned home Tuesday, after spending the winter in New York city, where she was a student of the American Academy of Dramatic Art, and received a special certificate for her work.

SHERIFF J. C. JONES CAPTURES

Big Still in Neighborhood Sellers Consolidated School.

BIGGEST STILL AND PRODUCT CAPTURED

Sheriff Jones Assisted by Federal Officers and County Deputies.

And still another! This is the report made by Sheriff Joseph C. Jones, federal officers and county deputy sheriff made Saturday, when one of the largest stills operating in the future of Hancock county was captured and completely routed.

A still with approximately fifty-gallon capacity, copper equipment and all other necessary paraphernalia, along with 3,500 gallons of mash, were discovered Saturday in the neighborhood of Sellers Consolidated school, where the forest is thickest and seemingly impenetrable. The mash was destroyed and the still and all other equipment met fatal fate.

Every vestige of the still was annihilated. A search was made for party or parties connected with the still, but no trace was found. Sheriff Jones says it is seldom any one is ever found around a still when raids are made, regardless how much precaution is taken. There seems to be a system of alarm, he says, and one either sees a Ford car racing at terrific rate, and in advance of the raiding party, or several reports of pistol shots or sounds of horns are heard.

With Sheriff Jones were Jim Goff and R. L. Collins, federal prohibition agents, and the following named men: Oscar Favre, of Kiln; W. T. Hobbs, of Bay St. Louis, and B. U. Carver, of Logtown.

This raid was made Saturday last and is one of the many within the past several weeks. "I am determined to break up this illicit business in Hancock county," said Sheriff Jones, "and I am endeavoring not only to make a clean sweep but to get Hancock rid of this lawlessness in the immediate future. No violator needs expect any consideration from me, and with my assistants we are going to be as diligent in the premises as possible."

Plans were practically completed last week for the convention of the Mississippi State Bar association which will be held in Gulfport, May 2nd and 3rd, an official of the Gulfport Chamber of Commerce stated to the Herald Monday.

Judge D. M. Russell, Chairman, calls session—To Be Held in Gulfport.

The meetings of the bar association will be held in the crystal ball room of the Markham Hotel Wednesday and Thursday of next week. The opening program will begin at 10:30 in the morning and the visitors will be welcomed to Gulfport by Mayor Joseph W. Miller for the city.

Large and Judge Russell, on behalf of the Harrison County Bar association, will deliver a number of interesting addresses will be delivered, reports made by committee chairmen, etc.

It is probable that a boat ride will be among the courtesies extended the visiting attorneys who, with their wives will probably number 150 people. The Gulfport Chamber of Commerce is co-operating to make this convention a success as it is regarded as one of the most important to be held in Gulfport this year.

To Study For the Brotherhood.

Joseph Jones, son of Mrs. Nora T. Jones, and son of Edward Jones, secretary to Hon. Robt. L. Genin, left a few days since for Metuchen, New Jersey, where he will study for the brotherhood, joining the order of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart. He was accompanied by a brother of the local college.

Young Jones will be 16 years of age in September. He has long ago professed his desire to either join the priesthood or brotherhood, and his vocation is so firmly expressed that his entry into the novitiate was made at once and his studies begun without unnecessary loss of time.

FIRST STEP FOR HANCOCK COUNTY ORGANIZING IN PHLANX FOR FUTURE

President Farmers' Market Association Addressed Public at Courthouse Here Tuesday Night, Under Auspices of Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce.

Chief Albert Jones

In Card to Public

Chief of Police Albert Jones, of Bay St. Louis, having tendered his resignation to the Mayor and Board of Commissioners, and same accepted, he has issued a card to the public, which follows, in which he is thankful and apologetic, and he might have hurt, "if I am to blame." His card shows splendid spirit.

"To the Public: "Some time this month I sent in my resignation as chief of police of Bay St. Louis, which was accepted. I have served in that capacity for about 12 years. During that time I have worked to give satisfaction to the best of my ability. I have never been called down or criticized by my superior officers. Being human, I realize that I have made some enemies and some mistakes, but I assure you that at all times I have done my duty as I saw it. My one thought during this time was to give satisfaction. I have been out both night and day. I have never failed to answer all calls made on me whether late or early.

"I am leaving this office with enmity towards none. If during the course of my duties I have caused any hard feelings and have hurt any one's feelings, I beg to apologize, if I am to blame. I now adopt this method of thanking the public for holding me in office this length of time. I consider this an honor and deeply appreciate their confidence in me. I have the good of Bay St. Louis at heart, and I hope and pray that the city will continue to prosper in the future as it has in the past.

"Yours for a greater city," "ALBERT JONES."

It was proposed to organize a local unit and to affiliate with the P. O. U. of America. This would insure all the benefits of top-notch organization already organized, perfected and working.

Mr. Geraty, during his remarks to the assembly, that in a section of South Carolina in 1904, due to a lack of organization, farmers had become bankrupt. Mortgages were the order of things and so loaded up were the banks of that section of the state on this kind of business, they refused further success.

That section of the country, continued Mr. Geraty, is now one of the most prosperous. The truth of the matter the farmers have idle money to lend the banks. All this was brought about by proper organization, thorough system and businesslike application. All that Hancock county can grow can readily be shipped and always at top-notch figures. It takes organization to do it.

The Sea Coast Echo is intensely interested in this new departure for our section, and we are glad to note the initiative in the matter and is urging it on with all the vigor and pep possible.

ROCKACHAWS BEAT BOGALUSA; 5 TO 0

Egloff Allows Only Three Hits in Six Innings—Game Called Account Rain.

Despite an overcast sky which threatened to bust loose at any moment, and did finally go in for a soaker after the sixth inning, the Rockachaws of Stanislaus defeated the Bogalusa of Bogalusa, 5 to 0. In fact, they shut the visitors out to the tune of five to not at all.

Kid Egloff took the mound for the Rocks and he smoked 'em up so that the 'Jacks hadn't even a look-in, allowing but three bingles in the six periods. The visitors showed that though they were intent on committing some slaughter on Egg. The first two men up-rang the bell for a single each, but they died on the pillows, for the smoke-artist of the House of Drains whiffed the next three of the "clean-up" squad. After that he was just a matter of counting one, two, three out, till the sixth inning when they got the third and last single.

The Rockachaws scored in the second-inning on a hit, a base on balls and an infield out. They tallied again in the fifth on

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS For Congress

Any church in Bay St. Louis will be glad to see you in the congregation next Sunday. Why not?

Well, the automobile drivers of Bay St. Louis seem to have missed all the pedestrians last week.

The near approach of the month of May does not mean that subscriptions cannot be paid through next Monday.

LIVE STOCK VS. CHILDREN.

National Child Health Day will be celebrated on May 1st in the hopes, it is said, of arousing governmental interest in children's work.

Will Rogers offers the following comment:

"Being a ranchman and a farmer and also a child owner, I have often wished that when one of my children get sick I could wire or call up some Government expert and have him come look after them like I can do if one of my cows or pigs get some disease."

"If your fertilizer is not agreeing with the land the Government will send a specialist, but if the food is not agreeing with the baby why we have to find out what's the matter ourselves, and lots of times, parents mean well, but they don't know much."

FORD'S SURPLUS.

The surplus of the Ford company is said to have fallen fifty million dollars last year, which is explained as the cost of producing the new model. After deducting the lost fifty millions the figures show that the surplus and reserve accounts of the famous motor company aggregate, this year, only $668,593,092.

Well, Henry may be able to pull through on that much. He is in Europe today, and with these resources he may be able to enjoy the trip. Well, while we have not agreed with all the ideas advanced by Ford we are willing to admit that he has earned what he has. Unlike many millionaires he produced something and made a fortune doing it cheaper than anybody else in the world. He doesn't owe his fortune to the companies or a monopoly or the accidental ownership of natural resources which rightly belong to the people.

ILLINOIS "UNSEATS" SMITH.

Former member of the United States Congress, Frank Smith, of Illinois, has been defeated in the election for the United States House of Representatives.

Smith, who was elected to the House in 1922, had been re-elected in 1924 and 1926. He was defeated in 1928 by the Republican candidate, Charles D. Smith.

Smith's defeat was a significant loss for the Democratic Party in Illinois. He had been a prominent figure in the state's political scene.

THE ROAD OF DEATH AND DEATH VALLEY.

A gentleman from Bay St. Louis Sunday came to the timely rescue of an automobile and party of five that had left the Spanish Trail and gone over the embankment down to the stagnant water below in that section on this side of Pearl River and known as part of Honey Island, but possibly might be known as a better and more telling designation of "Death Valley." Cars after cars, it is alleged, had passed this car, ditched, on its way from Mobile to New Orleans, and seemingly disregarded the accident.

The Bay St. Louis party was soon to the scene below the embankment, rescued the party, among which was a mother holding her infant high in extended arms. Giving them first aid as much as possible, since he is druggist and possessed of knowledge of his profession, and carried them on to Slidell, and later had the private wrecking apparatus tow the car in order it might be reconditioned and able to continue its journey.

That no one was hurt or seriously maimed is nothing less but a miracle and is one of the many accidents that occur every week-end in this Valley of Death and along the Road of Death, since the Old Spanish Trail is one of menacing loose gravel.

It is charged many drive fast and recklessly. This might be true to an extent only, but we venture not in every case. An automobile is not built to travel as horse and wagon, but at a speed in order distance be covered and destination reached within reasonable time since so much space is to be covered.

The remedy lies in the hope this entire road will be constructed of concrete in the immediate future. One life alone is precious. It is worth all the worldly goods in the world. It is entitled to right of every precaution and further every effort to circumvent the possibility of the many accidents and near-accidents that occur from time to time.

Death Valley and Death Road is exacting an awful toll. Those in authority will take care of the situation.

1927 CHURCH GAINS: 573,723.

The churches of the United States gained 573,723 new members last year according to The Christian Herald, which made public last week its annual religious census of the country. The total number of communicants is set at 48,594,163. The publication points out that the 1927 gain is larger than that in 1926, when, according to its census, the increase was about 490,000.

"The returns for ministers and churches both show noteworthy says: 'There is a net loss of 1,387 in the number of ministers, which now stands at 217,204, while the number of churches has decreased to 235,991, or 1,470 fewer than last year.'

The Roman Catholic church is credited with a gain of 174,889 and a total of 16,735,691 communicants, making it almost four times as large as the largest Protestant body, the Methodist Episcopal church, which is credited with 4,592,004, a gain of 46,138.

The following table of the nine largest bodies, a "d" in the "gain" column meaning a decrease:

BEAUTIFY THE BEACH FRONT.

Noted here and there, sporadically, along the north beach front there is concrete evidence of the disposition on part of property owners to beautify that section of the beach bluff connecting with street surface. In instances the grass is made to form a carpet-like surface by aid of the lawn mower, and in other places shrubbery and flowering plants have been set out.

So outstanding are these oasis like out on some great desert, one cannot but notice, and not only the unconscious nod of approval follows, but as a sequence there are expressions of approval and words of commendation.

Someone has suggested a property owners' league for larger fulfillment of this plan, to foster the work, but since a 100 per cent co-ordination of the enterprise may not be had it is simpler if each owner will constitute himself a sole and separate unit and enter further upon the work inaugurated.

In addition to enhancing one's property for own pleasure and satisfaction there would be a far-reaching effect, that of beautifying the city and clinching the good will and admiration of people who visit. There is no advertisement more striking, signifying character of civic spirit.

MOTOR RACES FOR BAY ST. LOUIS.

No forthcoming event in the immediate future as the outdoor motor boat races for Sunday, May 20th, is attracting more interest and arousing more enthusiasm. And it is evident, from responses received and entries already filed, no aquatic event will prove more outstanding.

It has been cause for wonderment time and again why a watering and pleasure resort like Bay St. Louis has seemingly been deficient in interest to suggest and promote such enterprise, for the sport of the thing, entertainment and publicity to accrue and in sequence to redound to local benefit.

Messrs. Charles A. Breath, Sr., and Emilio Cue, prime movers, and the Bay-Waveland Yacht club are rendering a service worthy of mention and deserving of recognition. Their enterprise fills a long-felt want, supplies a medium for the public good and affords recreation for our people and guests. The Sea Coast Echo cannot commend the outdoor motor boat races and the prompting spirit too highly; in fact, we are of the opinion it is a subject for congratulation for all concerned.

POPULATION FIGURES.

On July 1st the population of the United States will be, it is estimated by the Census Bureau, slightly above 120,000,000. This indicates that the next census, in 1930, will show a gain of 16,750,000 inhabitants over the last. This will be the largest growth in the history of the nation.

Before the World War our net gain from immigration was about 550,000 a year. In the last three years (1924-1926) it has amounted to only 250,000. The large gain in population for the present decade does not mean a large percentage increase, as it will be only 13 per cent, as against 18 per cent between 1920 and 1924.

The census of 1920 was the first to include a count of the colored population. It showed that there were 10,000,000 colored people in the United States at that time. This was a significant increase from the 1910 census, which showed 9,000,000.

Vivid Youth, Dull Age.

Making the Mississippi Safe.

Depew Wise Man.

Could Coolidge Say No?

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE.

(Copyright, 1927)

In youth impressions are vivid, and last into old age. Therefore, the manuscript of "Alice in Wonderland" sells for $75,259, a record price, more than would have been paid for the manuscript of Dante's "Inferno" or of Voltaire's "Zadig," each word worth a thousand. "Alice in Wonderland" has thousands of thousands of readers. Years, dull, imagination. Millions that remember "Robinson Crusoe," "Swiss Family Robinson," "Gulliver's Travels" vividly have a faint impression of more important books read later.

Washington reporters say, probably inaccurately, that President Coolidge is "shocked" at the suggestion of $750,000,000 to make the Mississippi river safe.

A country that could give TEN THOUSAND MILLIONS TO EUROPE, add half a billion a year to railroad receipts, and plan, wisely, to cut $200,000,000 a year from corporation taxes, need not shudder at the thought of spending part of a billion to make the Mississippi safe.

Chauncey M. Depew, dead in his ninety-four year, older than the Republican party, which he served long and faithfully, said: "I have lived long because I could laugh at anything."

Of Napoleon, it was said that in his youth "no one ever saw him laugh." He didn't live ninety-three years, but he did live more in one day than amiable Mr. Depew in all his ninety-four years.

Chauncey Depew attended 8,000 banquets and never let boredom drive him into eating too much. That's wisdom.

He campaigned for Lincoln, got $1.75 for his first legal services, lived under twenty-four Presidents, from Andrew Jackson to Calvin Coolidge, and knew thirteen of them personally. How many can name the twenty-four from Jackson on?

Mr. Darrow, of the House Naval Affairs Committee, told President Coolidge his friends "still hoped he would be a candidate." The President replied: "I am afraid they will have to be disappointed."

Die-hard Coolidge enthusiasts will find SOME comfort in that word "afraid." A man cannot help being persuaded if arguments are good.

Suppose the President were convinced, as he may be, that his renomination and re-election, a second time, would boom business, increase employment, stabilize prosperity, and free his party from oil stain danger, could he continue to say no?

Aviation is a reality, says General Atterbury, and railroads should know it. He is said to plan for the Pennsylvania a part railroad, part-flying machine service from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The traveler would spend daylight in the flying machine, night hours on the train, cross the continent in forty-eight hours, avoiding mountain flying. This rumour is not guaranteed.

New York merchants report business excellent in women's apparel. They buy more of it and less of it, more garments, less material in them. Paper underwear for ladies makes its appearance in several stores.

Silk of wood, underwear of paper—not pleasant news for cotton growers.

Old British builders of wooden ships who said ships made of steel would sink in heavy storms would be interested in the Leviathan's latest trip.

He reached New York with her fore-castle deck smashed, deck structures badly twisted by a wave said to be 150 feet high, that dropped 1,000,000 pounds of water on her deck at once.

Men build ships that the ocean cannot sink. Water waves are heavier than air waves. Airships will soon be built that no air wave will worry.

In Seattle a tiny Pomeranian barked too much. Its owner wanted the vocal chords removed, reducing the bark to a "gutter," but humane societies said "No." Airships will soon be built that no air wave will worry.

Dog Trainer Sanderlin removed the bark in two weeks b training. "Obedience is the secret," says he. "I taught Darlie (the Pomeranian) the meaning of the words 'Shut up.'"

That trainer might make a fortune in politics.

Legislature Pass Mosquito Bill.

The Mississippi Legislature did a good piece of work on Tuesday last, when it passed a bill proposing to allow county boards of supervisors to appoint commissions to direct county fights against propagation of mosquitoes, after an amendment had been adopted to restrict the operation of the law to counties bordering on the Gulf and Mississippi river.

Largely through the efforts of Col. H. D. Money, candidate for congress from the Sixth district, with Dr. T. H. D. Griffiths in charge of the Gulf States mosquito survey, Dr. Felix S. Gause, of the State Department of the Gulf and Mississippi river, the above bill was passed and introduced in the House of Representatives by Houston.

Dr. Money has explained the bill to the House and the Senate, and the bill is now in the hands of the Judiciary Committee.

The bill is a very important one, as it will help to protect the people of the Gulf and Mississippi river from the danger of mosquitoes.

THE JOYS OF ACCURACY.

A common fault and a common element of weakness is the habit of exaggeration. You have often heard a young flapper say that upon such and such an occasion she nearly died or that there were millions of people at the ball game, or some other manifest exaggeration.

This is a habit that is easily slipped into, but it is an element of weakness.

The trouble is that people get to discounting your statements and are apt to believe nothing that you say. They think that you always exaggerate everything.

The Christian Science Monitor points out that one of the values of studying arithmetic is to become accustomed to the joys of accuracy.

If one will acquire the habit of stating as nearly as may be possible exactly what is the fact, if his reputation for stating the facts clearly is once established, it will be a great element of strength.

Profanity and over-exaggeration and extreme utterances always show that our passions outrun our information.

Always state, the best you can, just exactly what occurred. Accustom yourself to accuracy and modest claims. Then you will be credited with the habit of truth-telling and people will believe what you say.

There may be joy, a certain kind of joy, in exaggeration. It may appeal to the imagination to overstate things.

But there's as much pleasure, after we get used to it, in being accurate and in telling only what is true.

Mississippi Taxes.

The Mississippi House of Representatives mustered a majority of only two for the bill to raise the ad valorem tax two more mills, after Governor Bilbo had vetoed it. We take it that this vote is a tribute rather to the merit of the Governor's position on this particular measure, than to his relative strength in the House.

The ad valorem tax rate is too high in Mississippi already, as he says, and every intelligent and candid citizen knows that the Governor is right when he says that tax dodgery is rampant in the state. What the state really needs is an efficient system for the fair equalization of assessments that will force everybody to pay in proportion as everybody else pays.—New Orleans Item.

Weekly News Letter.

BY W. F. BOND.

Two Red birds some days ago built a nest in a rose bush near the front porch of the house in which I live. It was interesting to watch them as they worked faithfully putting together the bits of straw and twigs for the temporary home for the little family hoped for. Soon there were eggs in the nest and the mother bird began her long hours by day and night keeping the eggs warm so that they would hatch in due course of time. The male bird would sit about in the nearby trees singing his most beautiful songs to cheer and comfort the mother bird on the nest. Yesterday morning the nest had been torn up during the night. The male bird would fly into the rose bush and look all through it very excitedly, then perch himself on top of the house or in a tree and sing one of his songs, trying to get some response from his mate. All his efforts were in vain for during the night some stray prowling cat had caught the mother bird and killed her and all the young birds in the nest. I wonder how many thousands of our beautiful song birds, and useful birds in general will be destroyed this year by stray cats and dogs. If we are to preserve the bird life of the state, we must protect the birds, especially, during the nesting season from their enemies.

HURRYING HUNTSMEN—Tired of running from howling dogs, chased on by whooping hunters on horseback, Santa county, wolves last week chased howlers, whoopers, and horses out of their woods. Sportsmen admitted disappointment at the way the race went.

FORD VS. BONNY—Dr. C. R. Bush, Macon, will run no more rabbits in his Ford. Accepting last week the challenge of a frisky bunny to a chase down a slippery road, Dr. Bush became so excited in his pursuit that when Brer Rabbit, tired, sought seclusion at the bottom of a 10-foot embankment, he and Ford followed forthwith.

TOOTING TILT—Brass bands will blow their most brazen blares into the ears of judges at Clinton next week. There, in a contest at Mississippi College, will be selected the best band in the state.

$10,000 REPLY—Sam Sack, become suddenly sorrowful, is seeking to soothe his former Clarksdale employe, Nell Elizabeth Harper, whose reply to alleged insulting overtures was a $10,000 suit for damages.

NUMBERLESS KNATS—Scobey horses and mules stampeded madly last week as millions of buffalo knats, wafted westward on winds from the delta, descended in clouds upon them. Estimated live stock losses totaled $14,000.

YE HONORABLE EGG—Fruit of Mississippi hens will be honored by the participation of this state in National Egg Week, May 1-7. Chief egg man will be E. P. Clayton, A. & M., in charge for Mississippi.

GRAVE LOBBYIST—Mississippians snickered slyly up their sleeves when they learned that one of the men alleged to have lobbied against Elmer's printing plant proposition has been in his grave since 1926.

SNAKE IN THE GRASS—Because there was no pain or swelling, C. L. Fuqua, visiting in Lucedale, paid no attention to the bite of a small bright colored snake. Later, walking down a country road, he was smitten with blindness, choking, lock-jaw, died a sudden, violent death.

WALKS BACK—Because he liked McComb and his old master better than New Orleans and his new, an airdale, shipped to the Crescent City by A. K. Landau, last week returned the many miles home afoot. He will be allowed to stay.

BY RAIL ONLY—Because railway employes pointed out to them the many dollars brought into their city by railroad taxes and payrolls, Purvis merchants have notified out-of-town wholesalers that they will accept no more orders sent in on motor trucks. "You rail route it or we'll rail return it," is their ultimatum.

STAYED THIRSTY—While his deputies raided a Jones county hog house, Sheriff Freeman, standing in the yard, was accosted by a thirsty would-be customer, asked "How much a pint?" "Three dollars," said the sheriff. "Too much," protested his customer. No sale was made.

MILKY BASEBALL—Northeast Mississippians, retaining their love for baseball while they become increasingly crazy about cows, have organized the N. E. Miss. Dairy League. In it are teams from New Albany, Tupelo, Pontotoc, Okolona, Booneville, West Point, Houston.

KEG O' BEER—Under shucks, cobs and other "matter common to stable," Sheriff Josh Beall, of Neshoba county, last week found buried a fifty-gallon keg of beer. "A funny place for drinkables," opined Philadelphia stick-whittlers.

Do you find yourself running down always tired, nervous and depressed? Are you stiff and aching, subject to nagging backache, drowsy headaches and dizzy spells? Are kidney excretions scanty, too frequent, burning in passage? Too often this indicates sluggish kidneys and shouldn't be neglected.

(Hold This Before Your Mirror)

TRUST A WOMAN'S INTUITION TO ANALYZE ANY CONDITION

The Advance Agent for a town is similar to a show. He must feature the facts the public desire to know. If his show or town has merit as it certainly should. The public finally discover the town or show is good.

Bay-Waveland is destined to be the Gulf Coast surprise. And I hope and trust all reading this will fully realize I only state facts that are well worthy of Your attention. That they are absolutely correct is needless to mention.

For its headline feature I believe the principal reason is its offering a double or both winter and summer season. As it offers winter advantages to all from every vicinity. And in summer it has New Orleans in very close proximity.

It's facing East, giving morning sun and evening shade. With good Gulf Breezes in summer its success is made. The foundation for an all year resort is surely laid. By Nature's blessings and our home-talent brigade.

A seawall the entire length of Waveland and the Bay is now nearing completion and was put down to stay. Bids for a paved Boulevard will be opened 9th of May. And the time to come here "is Now" without any delay.

During the past two years Bay-Waveland has built more Public Buildings and nicer homes than in 50 years before. These new Residences are attractive and built very well. Because erected by the owners to live in "not to sell."

The many advantages in living here are hard to enumerate. But of the most important I will try to briefly state. Splendid Public Schools, Good Churches and Excellent College. Give a social atmosphere and an opportunity for knowledge.

Fishing, Boating, Bathing and the wonderful Live Oak Trees. With summer trade winds giving unrestricted Gulf Breeze. Bridges and good Auto roads it now has both East and West. And its natural advantages are distinctly, decidedly Best.

For a place to catch, kill or raise everything you eat. Bay-Waveland and nearby vicinity surely can't be beat. As Sea Food and Flowers every day can be truthfully said. And in gardens every month you can raise all but the dead.

Pecans, Grape Fruit, Oranges, Your own fig trees and vine. Also legitimately You can make and use Your own good wine. The hunting in this section is still excellent in season; In fact, we offer everything good that is within reason.

The water is Artesian and is beautiful beyond measure. And to drink or bathe in it is, indeed, a great pleasure. The weather is excellent both in the spring or in the fall. The summers are fair with hardly ever any winter at all.

My next will in detail describe the reasons for its worth,
Also why New Orleans will be one of the greatest on Earth.

STORIES IN AND AROUND BAY ST. LOUIS, HEARD BY CURBSTONE REPORTER

Echoes of Things Here and There of Divers Interest—Notations and Comments Wise and Otherwise.

Traffic Department city of Bay St. Louis will issue in printed book form on May 1st, a new ordinance affecting drivers of automobiles and other vehicles running over the streets and parking in the city.

The book is of a size to fit one's pocket, consisting of twenty-four pages, and in extenso, tells how to drive, how to park and designates many streets over which the driver will have right of way.

There is only one one-way street, State. All others are two-way thoroughfares. Parking only on right hand drive side of street.

"The city has long been in need of such rules and regulations," said the commentator who has a habit of sitting on the edge of the counter in the grocery store, "and if one follows the little book it will serve as a valuable guide and prove welcome. Of course, I am not a driver; do not own one, but I feel as an observer I can see more and know more than the average driver."

The desire to ride in or drive an automobile is a mania with some people. They seem almost unable to resist it as a dope addict of long standing. Here's a story which was overheard a few days ago:

A certain individual was a little short of funds with which to purchase gas for his car. His credit at the filling stations was not the best in the world. However, he did have a limited credit at a certain grocery. He walked into the store and asked for four dozen eggs. The price of eggs at this particular time was 40c a dozen. The eggs were handed him; and he asked that they be charged. He then took the eggs to another place and offered to sell them for 30c a dozen. He got the cash, went to the filling station, procured the necessary gas which he so desired and went on his way rejoicing.

Maybe someone round here can spot this gentleman. It probably wouldn't be exactly right to couple his name with this bit of "frenzied finance."

You get out of life just what you put into it. The same rule holds good with respect to your home town. Just in proportion to the work and interest you take in Bay St. Louis will you be repaid in a bigger and more progressive city in which to do business. The more business done here, the greater is your opportunity to prosper.

It is true Bay St. Louis streets are paved and graveled, but did you ever see a cart stuck in the mud and the team unable to move it? A crowd gathers round and watches the team straining in their effort to move the vehicle. Some in the crowd just stand idly by and watch. Others will offer words of advice to the driver. Then one of two "doers step out, get a hold on the wheels and lend assist."

Others will follow the example and pretty soon the cart is out of the rut and on its way. Pretty good example this, to some folks round here who are content to sit idly by and let George do the work towards making Bay St. Louis a better town in which to live. It's never too late to put your shoulder to the wheel and lend a helping hand. The sooner you get this soaked into your skull, the sooner will this town begin to boom, and the sooner will your opportunities be increased.

Splitting buckshot on a knife blade stuck in a fence by means of shooting them at the blade with a sling shot was the boast of an individual the other day. He had no sooner finished the story when a bird hunter told of having brought down two birds with a double barrel 22 pistol—one with each barrel. This was followed by a hunter who told of his bird dog which was never known to have flushed a covey of birds. The animal pointed a covey about dark one evening. The hunter was without his gun and went on home. The dog failed to show up during the night, and the following morning was found still holding the point. Step up, Mr. Fisherman, it's your time next.

Folk who do not like Bay St. Louis and are forever and eternally telling the world so, can find at least one thing here which ought to be to their liking—the schedule of outgoing trains. Nobody has to stay in this town except the fellows who are in jail. This does not necessarily apply to Bay St. Louis, but it might do some other place.

L. & N. Has Largest (?) Train.

An editorial in the L. & N. Employes' Magazine for April states that the longest L. & N. freight train on record contained 400 cars. The train was not drawn by a locomotive, according to the writer, but by a now famous cartoonist, Fontaine Fox, a native of Louisville, Ky.

The editorial quotes a paragraph from an article by Fox in a recent issue of The Saturday Evening Post, which says:

"As a boy of seven I had shown what might be called daring as an artist, for I had drawn an L. & N. freight train that I intended to be the longest train in the world. There were about 400 cars, and there would have been a caboose if I had not been interrupted by my mother, who raised loud objections because I had drawn that train on the parlor walls. Possibly that might have been classed as a very early display of talent, but my family had another name for it."

She: "I hear you get your haircuts at the barber college."
He: "Well, we college men must stick together."

Well-Known Interior

Decorators Create

Color Schemes

The paint, varnish and Duco industry of the du Pont company has entered into a new and different method of serving the public, based on the increasing vogue for color and the higher standards of taste of the American people.

The best brains and talent in art, style and decoration in America and abroad have been gathered together and their ideas on color and interior decoration in the finishing of furniture and appliances are being passed on to the public.

Some of the notable interior decorators of the country have drawn up color schemes based on Duco and outlined interior decoration plans for every room in the home, so that the woman who is giving thought to creating a better atmosphere in her home can profit by the suggestions of these leaders.

Among the decorators whose advice on creating color schemes with Duco will appear in the leading magazines this Spring are—Agnes Foster Wright, Nancy McClelland, Margery Still Wickware, Gertrude Green Robinson, Elsie Sloan Farley and Mary Buell.

Mr. H. W. Osinach of the Bay Mercantile company, local dealers of du Pont paints and Duco, said that the response he has been getting from the new idea is very stimulating. Mr. Osinach believes that people now have a broader appreciation of art, style and beauty in the home than ever before and that this opens up a new opportunity in the increasing use of paints and finishing materials in the home.

"Who's that behind us, Fred?" asked the man at the wheel as a car hooted.

"Only a flapper in a roadster," Fred answered.

The driver hurled his wheel over, swerved the car off the road, crashed through a fence and turned turtle. "Thank heaven we escaped!" he muttered.—Smith's Weekly, Sydney.

Jack Dempsey Says He Is Through—Spurns Fifty-Million Dollar Backing.

Jack Dempsey was in New York last week and made positive announcement that he was through with the ring. Here is what he said:

"Guarantee of $50,000,000 couldn't get me back into the ring. I'm through. For the first time I'm through with the ring, as a fighter anyway, although I'll always have an interest or be interested in boxing."

"I just can't seem to get people to believe me when I say I am through. But I am. I'm absolutely sincere in that. I'm not a fighter, course, $400,000 or $500,000 is a lot of money to be tossing aside, and I guess the hesitation to account for what many may consider indifference to this fortune explains the refusal of the people to decide that I mean it when I say I am through as a fighter."

"But I do mean it. Not that I couldn't use that 'touch.' That's a lot of money from any angle, and we can always use more money than we have. But there are other things to this life besides money, and I have plenty of that right now. In addition I can walk around without the aid of a cane or crutches, and I can still see well enough to tell the time. That's the way I want to remain. And that's one of the reasons I am through with the ring."

"I've had thirteen years of fighting. That's enough for any young fellow. Now I feel like enjoying what I got out of the game. Let some of these young fellows get along. I think you'll agree that thirteen years of ring action is enough for any man."

There'll be no changing my mind on fighting again. There'll be no more fights for me, against Bate, or Tunney, or Sharkey, or Henney, or anybody else.

"No, I'm not quitting the ring because I am threatened with blindness. I'm not wearing glasses now and manage somehow to see pretty well. Of course, I may pull the glasses on the boys while I'm here. I won't say so to that. But that story about blindness is slightly exaggerated. I did get a bad cut over my left eye in the last Tunney fight, but that's all healed and without leaving any after effects."

"The big reason for my quitting is that I know better than anybody else that I am nowhere near myself as a fighter. Some people think I look good and some think I look bad. But I know that while I feel absolutely O. K. from a physical standpoint, I am through as a fighter."

"I figure right now I am at most but about 40 per cent of my old fighting self. I felt that in Chicago, when something seemed to go out from under me as the fight dragged along. I can't explain it, but where I knew I should have felt best I actually experienced the sensation of slipping. It was, as I say, as if something was slipping out from under you just when you need something to bear you up and push you on. There's no use kidding yourself when that sensation comes over you. You are gone and the quicker you realize it the better."

"The best illustration in the world is that I had Tunney down in the seventh round and he got away from me. I just didn't have it in me and the cold realization of this has convinced me it is better to forget about fighting."

CATAHOULA COMMUNITL COLORED ORGANIZATION MEETS.

The Catahoula community organization (colored) met at the schoolhouse last Friday at 8 o'clock. The president, Mamie Erkins, led the community singing, after which the chairman, C. H. Erkins, made a report on the club committee, L. Dorton and E. Sellers, made their reports.

As a part of the home improvement work, each family had planted a spring garden. Relative to the general work the following topics were discussed: (1) "How a Bed Room Can Be Made Beautiful With Little Expense"; (2) A cotton dress contest for women, featuring a dress for house work, street and church wear.

A party was given to encourage all colored girls of the community to attend the county short course to be held at Gulfside, Waveland, June 21-23. After this report had been received, the community leader, M. May, discussed the necessity of better attendance and co-operation. ### Since the completion of the bridge between New Orleans and Bay St. Louis along the balance of the Gulf Coast line on to Biloxi, it is nothing unusual to see hundreds of automobiles, trucks, and other automotive vehicles rolling in and fro over the streets of our city.

And of the more outstanding and attractive is the truck of D. H. Holmes, Canal Street department store at New Orleans, out in Bay St. Louis Monday morning, carrying a burden of packages for local delivery purchases made Saturday.

The truck of this one particular store visits the coast tri-weekly, Monday, Wednesday and Friday. William Helstein is in charge and Anthony Calico delivery boy. Every package is intelligently addressed, giving not only name but street and number, and since Bay St. Louis streets carry names and house numbers delivery is facilitated.

New Orleans is getting closer to the Gulf Coast "day-by-day" in every way. There is no doubt. Helstein said: "We make delivery with truck 24 to points in Sibley, Pearl River, Logtown, Pearlport, Clermont Harbor, Waveland, Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian, Long Beach, Gulfport, Mississippi City, Biloxi and all intermediate points."

In reply to an inquiry, he said there was no delivery to Ocean Springs, neither to Kila. The class of purchase is principally advertised goods. Parcels post and express charges are saved, besides there is a minimum of breakage, if any.

Why Don't We Get More Factories?

Almost every Chamber of Commerce in active work is blamed by some citizens for not obtaining more factories for the city. These critics are never satisfied, regardless of what other improvements have been accomplished.

It seems to be their idea that factories or industries grow on trees, and that if the Chamber of Commerce were really on the job, it would have only to pluck off a dozen or so a year. The total number of new factories in the United States for 1923 was 618. Of this number, 302 originated, and were financed, in the towns where they were located. One hundred and thirty others that originated in the home town received some aid from outside capital; 98 were branch plants, and 88 were removals from other localities.

These figures clearly indicate that if the people of a town want new factories, the best plan is to originate the factory need and then put up the money.

During the hurricane of house cleaning many a wall will be measured for a new paper coat. And it must be becoming, for it will have to be worn for a year or two.

In choosing wall paper patterns, north and east rooms should have colors in the warm, rich tones—never cool blues, grays or greens, which belong on the sunny side of the house.

When the rug, draperies or upholstery are be-furred, walls should be relatively plain and vice versa. Where there is a cherished antique or two in the room, it is very good decorative sense to choose paper in harmony. Thus, for example, the fine old secretary, pie-trust table or Sheraton chair find in Colonial wall paper a friendly background against which to show themselves.

It chooses the wall paper with regard to the keynote of the room, the most inexpensive paper is charming, because of its freshness and artistic harmony.

USING "LEFT-OVER" SALAD

Cut (uncooked) vegetables and fruits soon become watery and discolored and are useless for a second meal. But they can be kept fresh and crisp for several days by combining them with gelatin.

A DAINTY COMPANY DISH.

For sea food au gratin, prepare white sauce using 1 tablespoon flour, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, and half pint of milk. Butter baking dish, add layers of tuna fish, lobster, shrimp, or any cooked fish. Pour over white sauce, cover with grated cheese and buttered crumbs and brown lightly.

ECONOMY IN CAKES.

Cake ingredients are costly—so it never pays to take risks in baking. Many a cake fails because the flour used is too heavy for this purpose. Prepared cake flour is much lighter and fluffier than bread flour, and because uniformly successful, is an economy in the end.

KEEPING FLOWERS.

If you add a few thin slices of white soap to the water before putting flowers into it, they will keep as fresh for nearly two weeks as when first gathered.

REMOVING MILDEW.

If mildew stains are soaked for several hours in a weak solution of chloride of lime, then rinsed in cold water, they will disappear.

RELIEF FOR IVY POISONING.

Apply olive oil over parts affected by ivy poison or bee sting and relief will instantly follow.

MAKING BUTTONHOLES.

A good way to make buttonholes straight and neat is to sew the stitches all around first, then slit the hole with a razor blade. This makes the buttonhole look trim and tailored.

Sometimes ferns that look dead can be revived by placing the pots in hot water and letting them stand until the water cools.

STANISLAUS COLLEGE

(Sunday, April 22) The Stanislaus baseball team, captained by the first baseman, Tommy, defeated the Biloxi team, 10 to 0. The game was a real battle, and the team played very well. The pitcher, Tommy, was the star of the game, and the team played very well.

April showers frequently forced the players into the grandstand, and the game was called in the sixth inning. Stanislaus had five runs and our pitcher on second base.

The team work was good and everyone fielded "like old regulars." Both coaches are confident of having a winning nine this year and a few years to come, although there are four graduates now playing regular and one on the bench.

Stanislaus at Hattiesburg.
Friday, April 18, the Varsity track team journeyed to Hattiesburg to compete in the State High School meet. The following boys made the trip: J. H. Schiro, Jr., Harry Glover, Jr., John Schiro, Jr., George Leger, John Scaffide, Ernest Raymond Barron, Charles Collins and Rudolph Huberwald.

Filled with the spirit of Stanislaus, the boys made a wonderful showing. Our long jumper, Lacer, better known about the college as "His Highness," won first place and a silver medal in the high hurdles. Our "Leaping Lena" went into the high jump immediately after the hurdles and all he could make was five feet eight inches.

Some wonderful vaulting, after he and two other lads had fought it out for over an hour the officials decided to toss up a coin to determine which one would get the medal. Our Harry did not even have a gambler's chance. J. H. Schiro ran a pretty mile and placed 2nd. A bit of inexperience caused him to lose his race. George Leger's mighty arm had such competition as to send him down to third place with the shot.

Rockchaws Meet Indians on Cinder Path at Biloxi.
Thursday, April 17, the Stanislaus Varsity track team went to Biloxi for a dual meet with Biloxi Central High School. About 3 o'clock the excitement began with the hundred yard dash. We were sure of this, but our two century men, Garcia and Huberwald, came in third and fourth. "His Highness" Lacer's sweeping victory in the high hurdles, his running mate, Joe McMeel, finished fourth. Schiro and Andrade ran the mile and, of course, Johnny took the race with ease, making it his second in two weeks. With Barry and second and third places in the half mile. As we were represented by Charles Collins and Johnny Massengill in the low hurdles, we were sure of first or second place. Charley ran second and our dear friend, Johnny, got tangled up with a little wood work biting the dust, he and second and third places in the half mile.
